ZONING MAP
City of York, Pennsylvania
Adopted August 16, 2011

NATIONAL REGISTER HISTORIC DISTRICTS
These sections of York have been listed as Historic Districts. York has one of the largest urban districts in the country and affords public recognition of the architectural and historical value of the City's buildings. Any Federally funded project in this area must be evaluated in respect to its impact on the historic and architectural character of this district before this is indicated by the following boundary line.

HISTORICAL ARCHITECTURAL REVIEW BOARD DISTRICT
This area of the City is designated “Historic York.” Applications for building permits here are additionally subject to review and approval by City Council through issuance of a certification of appropriateness. Reference: City of York Ordinance No. 31, passed September 15, 1970, as amended by the following pattern on the map.
