PRESS RELEASE

YORK CITY'S REAL MEN READ EVENT

(April 4, 2019) York, PA — The 8th Annual York City's Real Men Read Event will take place on Monday May, 20th 2019 beginning at 7:00am. This event encourages 100 or more men to volunteer within schools throughout the City of York to read and share with students in grades K-12, to promote educational excellence through the power of reading and positive community role models.

York City's Real Men Read Event is supported by United Way of York County, A.L. Handy Mentoring & Outreach, Crispus Attucks, City of York, Locals Only Collective, York City School District, Lincoln Charter School, Logos Academy and York Academy Regional Charter School.

Men interested in participating in the event should sign up at the following link no later than April 30th, 2019: <http://www.superreader.org/500-men/> - Please click "Register for York Reading Program"

On the date of the event, men should report to Hannah Penn K-8 School, 415 E Boundary Ave, York, PA, at 7:00am – 7:45am for a light breakfast, orientation, and group photo.

Questions regarding the specifics of the event should be addressed to Marquez Mitchell, marquez.mitchell100men@yahoo.com.
