NEW INTERACTIVE DASHBOARD REVEALS HEALTH OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES FOR CITY OF YORK RESIDENTS

(August 27, 2021) York, PA — At no time in recent history has attention to the root causes of health been so critical. The COVID-19 pandemic has put a spotlight on Public Health; this comprehensive assessment takes the conversation beyond disease outcomes and explores the relationship between environments, behaviors, illness, and length of life. Therefore, the Bureau of Health and mySidewalk has designed and will release, on Monday, August 30th, a new interactive Public Health Dashboard that gives City of York residents insights into the social and economic drivers of health, accessible via the main page at www.yorkcity.org or by visiting <https://dashboards.mysidewalk.com/york-pa-community-health-assessment/home>.

This interactive dashboard gives the community access to over 75 health data indicators and allows residents to stay informed about what is happening in their neighborhoods.
