185.01 SHORT TITLE.

This act may be cited as the "City of York Human Relations Ordinance."
(Ord. 32-2022. Passed 5-18-22.)

185.02 FINDINGS AND DECLARATION OF POLICY.

(a) The practice or policy of discrimination against individuals or groups by reason of their race, color, familial status, religious creed, ancestry, age, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identification, hairstyles and protective and cultural hair textures and hairstyles, disability, use of guide or support animals because of the disability of the user or because the user is a handler or trainer of support or guide animals is a matter of concern of the City. Such discrimination foments domestic strife and unrest, threatens the rights and privileges of the inhabitants of the City, and undermines the foundations of a free democratic society.

The denial of equal employment, housing and public accommodation opportunities because of such discrimination, and the consequent failure to utilize the productive capacities of individuals to their fullest extent, deprives large segments of the population of the City of earnings necessary to maintain decent standards of living, necessitates a resort to public relief and intensifies group conflicts, thereby resulting in grave injury to the public health and welfare, compels many individuals to live in dwellings which are substandard, unhealthy and overcrowded, resulting in racial segregation in public schools and other community facilities, juvenile delinquency and other evils, hereby threatening the peace, health, safety and general welfare of the City and its inhabitants.

(b) It is hereby declared to be the public policy of this City to foster the employment of all individuals in accordance with their fullest capacities regardless of their race, color, religious creed, ancestry, age, familial status, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identification, hairstyles and protective and cultural hair textures and hairstyles, disability, use of guide or support animals because of the disability of the user or because the user is a handler or trainer of support or guide animals, and to safeguard rights to obtain and hold employment without such discrimination, to assure equal opportunities to all individuals and to safeguard rights to public accommodation and to secure housing accommodation and commercial property regardless of race, color, familial status, religious creed, ancestry, age, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identification, hairstyles and protective and cultural hair textures and hairstyles, disability, use of guide or support animals because of the disability of the user or because the user is a handler or trainer of guide or support animals.

(c) This article shall be deemed an exercise of the powers granted to the City under applicable State and Federal laws for the protection of the public welfare, prosperity, health and peace of the people of the City of York. The provisions of this article shall be construed liberally for the accomplishment of the purposes therein.
(Ord. 32-2022. Passed 5-18-22.)

185.03 GENERAL PURPOSE.

The opportunity for an individual to obtain employment for which he is qualified, and to obtain all the accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of any public accommodation and of any housing accommodation and commercial property without discrimination because of race, color, familial status, religious creed, ancestry, disability, age, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identification, hairstyles and protective and cultural hair textures and hairstyles, the use of a guide or support animal because of the disability of the user or because the user is a handler or trainer of support or guide animals is hereby recognized as and declared to be a civil right which shall be enforceable as set forth in this article.

Nothing in subsection (b) hereof shall bar any institution or organization for disabled persons from limiting or giving preference in employment or membership to disabled persons.

However, should vocational technical training or other special training be required with regard to a specific position, then such training or special training may be considered by the employer.

(i) To exclude or otherwise deny equal jobs or benefits to a person because of the disability of an individual with whom the person is known to have a relationship or association.

(j) It shall not be an unlawful employment practice for an employer to express a preference for a certain kind of applicant where the position to be filled requires special qualifications, skills or experience as long as such preference is not on the basis of race, color, religious creed, ancestry, age, sex, national origin or disability, hairstyles and protective and cultural hair textures and hairstyles, the use of a guide or support animal, or sexual orientation or gender identification. - A. Inducing, soliciting or attempting to induce or solicit for commercial profit any listing, sale or transaction involving any housing accommodation or commercial property by representing that such housing accommodation or commercial property is within any neighborhood, community or area adjacent to any other area in which there reside, or do not reside, persons of a particular race, color, familial status, age, religious creed, ancestry, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identification, hairstyles and protective and cultural hair textures and hairstyles, disability, or who are guide or support animal dependent.
- B. Discouraging, or attempting to discourage, for commercial profit, the purchase or lease of any housing accommodation or commercial property by representing that such housing accommodation or commercial property is within any neighborhood, community or area adjacent to any other area in which there reside, or may in the future reside in increased or decreased numbers, persons of a particular race, color, familial status, age, religious creed, ancestry, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identification, hairstyles and protective and cultural hair textures and hairstyles, disability, or who are guide or support animal dependent.
- C. Misrepresenting, creating or distorting a circumstance, condition or incident for the purpose of fostering the impression or belief, on the part of any owner, occupant or prospective owner or occupant of any housing accommodation or commercial property, that such housing accommodation or commercial property is within any neighborhood, community or area adjacent to any other area which would be adversely impacted by the residence, or future increased or decreased residence, of persons of a particular race, color, familial status, age, religious creed, ancestry, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identification, hairstyles and protective and cultural hair textures and hairstyles, disability, or who are guide or support animal dependent within such neighborhood, community or area.
- D. In any way misrepresenting or otherwise misadvertising within a neighborhood or community, whether or not in writing, that any housing accommodation or commercial property within such neighborhood or community is available for inspection, sale, lease, sublease or other transfer, in any context where such - misrepresentation or misadvertising would have the effect of fostering an impression or belief that there has been or will be an increase in real estate activity within such neighborhood or community due to the residence, or anticipated increased or decreased residence, of persons of a particular race, color, familial status, age, religious creed, ancestry, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identification, hairstyles and protective and cultural hair textures and hairstyles, disability, or the use of a guide or support animal because of the disability of the user.

- (11) For any person with the intention of defeating the purposes of this article to sell, lease or transfer or attempt to sell, lease, or transfer or offer, advertise, or make available for sale, lease, or transfer any housing accommodation which is the subject of a written verified complaint filed with the Commission until final determination of the complaint.
 - (11.1) For any person, after a complaint regarding a housing accommodation has been filed and prior to final determination by the Commission, to fail to include a notice of the complaint in any subsequent lease or agreement of sale involving that housing accommodation.
 - (12) Nothing in this clause, regarding age or familial status, shall apply with respect to housing for older persons.

This exemption requires that the dwelling be owned and operated for other than a commercial purpose.
 - (13.1) The religious organization exemption applies only when membership in the religion is not restricted on account of race, color, ancestry, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identification, sex, age, hairstyles and protective and cultural hair textures and hairstyles, or disability.
 - (13.2) The exemption for a fraternal organization is only for a private club not in fact open to the public and applies only to lodgings provided as an incident to the club's primary purpose.
 - (14) Nothing in this clause shall apply:
 - A. With respect to discrimination based on sex, to the rental or leasing of housing accommodations in a single-sex dormitory.
 - B. To the rental of rooms in a landlord occupied rooming house with a common entrance. This exemption is limited to rooms or units containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than two families living independently of each other, if the owner actually maintains and occupies one of such living quarters as his or her residence. NOTE: A "family" includes one person.

- (15) Nothing above shall prevent the Commission from requiring reports, information or answers to questions regarding race, color, familial status, religion, creed, ancestry, age, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identification or hairstyles and protective and cultural hair textures and hairstyles, disability, or the use of a guide or support animal because of the disability of the user or because the user is a handler or trainer of support or guide animals, in connection with their compliance procedure of affirmative action or educational programs.

NOTE: Everything in this section is subject to Subtitle B at Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Part 100 - Discriminatory Conduct Under the Fair Housing Act. - (1) It shall be unlawful to coerce, intimidate, threaten, or interfere with any person in the exercise or enjoyment of, or on account of that person having exercised or enjoyed, or on account of that person having aided or encouraged any other person in the exercise or enjoyment of, any right granted or protected by this part, in accordance with the Fair Housing Act §818.
- (2) Conduct made unlawful under this section includes, but is not limited to, the following:

 - D. Intimidating or threatening any person because that person is engaging in activities designed to make other persons aware of, or encouraging such other persons to exercise, rights granted or protected by this article.

- E. Retaliating against any person because that person has made a complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in a proceeding under this article or the Fair Housing Act.

(c) This section shall not be construed to apply to any position dealing with the public health or safety where the person holding such position must be available for duty whenever needed, or to any position or class of positions duties of which are such that the personal presence of the holder of such position is regularly essential on any particular day or days or portion thereof for the normal performance of such duties with respect to any applicant therefor or holder thereof who, as a religious requirement, observes such as the Sabbath or other holy day.

(Ord. 32-2022. Passed 5-18-22.)

185.11 PROCEDURE.

(a) Any person claiming to be aggrieved by an alleged unlawful discriminatory practice, may make, sign and file with the Commission a verified complaint in writing which shall state the name and address of the persons alleged to have committed the unlawful practice and the particulars thereof. The complaint shall also contain such other information as may be required by the Commission. The Commission, upon its own initiative, may in like manner sign and file a complaint. The complainant shall have the power to fairly and reasonably amend any complaint, and the respondent shall have the like power to amend an answer. The Commission's right to amend a complaint is hereby limited to those complaints initiated and filed by the Commission.

(b) After the filing of any complaint the Commission shall make a prompt investigation. In the conduct of such investigation the Commission may issue subpoenas to any person to furnish information, records and other documents. The Commission must commence proceedings within thirty (30) days of receipt of the complaint. The Commission shall complete its investigation of a complaint within 100 days of receipt of the complaint, unless otherwise impracticable and, then, upon written notification and explanation of such impracticability to all parties. Administrative disposition of a complaint shall be within one (1) year of its filing and, if otherwise impracticable, upon written notification to all parties of the reasons for such impracticability.

(c) At the time of filing a complaint, the Commission shall advise the complainant of the time limits and choice of forums and advise the respondent of procedural rights.

(d) Upon the filing of a complaint, the Commission shall send a copy of the complaint to the complainant and to the named respondent within ten (10) days from the date of docketing the complaint, unless otherwise required by the Fair Housing Act.

(e) A respondent shall file a written, verified answer to the complaint within thirty (30) days of service of the complaint, unless otherwise required by the Fair Housing Act. The Commission, upon request of the respondent, may grant an extension of not more than thirty additional days, unless otherwise required by the Fair Housing Act.

(f) If after thirty (30) days (in no case more than sixty (60) days with an extension granted by the Commission) a respondent fails to answer the complaint, the allegations contained within said complaint will be deemed admitted by respondent and the Commission will proceed as if respondent had filed an answer admitting the allegations contained within the complaint.

(g) After service of the complaint, the Commission shall encourage voluntary and informed predetermination settlements between parties.

(h) If it is determined after such investigation that there is no basis for the allegations of the complaint, the Commission shall, within ten (10) days from such determination, cause to be issued and served upon the complainant written notice of such determination. The notices shall also state that the complaint will be dismissed unless within ten (10) days after such service the complainant or his attorney file, with the Commission, a request for a review hearing. The Commission shall, upon request for such a hearing, provide the complainant and his attorney, if any, an opportunity to appear before the Commission, a member thereof or a staff representative of the Commission, at the election of the Commission to present such additional information as may be available to support the allegations of the complaint. If, after such a hearing, the Commission or its representative determines that there is no basis for the allegation the complaint shall be dismissed and there shall be no appeal from such a decision.

(i) If the Commission, after investigation, determines that probable cause exists, the Commission shall promptly issue a charge and immediately endeavor to eliminate the unlawful practice complained of by conference, conciliation, and persuasion. Any conciliation agreement arising out of conciliation efforts by the Commission shall be an agreement between the respondent and the complainant and shall be subject to the approval of the Commission. Each conciliation agreement shall be made public unless the complainant, respondent, and Commission all agree that disclosure is not required to further the purposes of this article.

(j) If the Commission, in its discretion, finds it is not possible to eliminate such unlawful practices by persuasion, the Commission shall cause to be issued and served a written notice, together with a copy of such complaint as originally filed or as the same may have been amended by the Commission, requiring the respondent to answer the charges of such complaint at a hearing before the Commission at a time and place to be specified in such notice. The Commission may designate one or more of its members to preside at such meeting, or it may at its election conduct such hearing en banc.

(1) Whenever notice of a hearing has been given under this subsection, either party may elect to have the claim asserted in the complaint decided in a civil action brought under the original jurisdiction of the Court of Common Pleas of York County. The written notice of the Commission shall inform the parties of this right. An election must be made within twenty (20) days after receipt of the notice of hearing. If an election for civil action is made by either party, the Commission shall, within thirty (30) days from the date of election, commence and maintain a civil action on behalf of the complainant.

(k) The case in support of the complaint shall be presented to the Commission by its attorney or by a member of its staff. The respondent may file a written verified answer to the complaint and appear at such hearing in person or with counsel. The Commission shall not be bound by the strict rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law or equity. The testimony taken at the hearing shall be under oath and shall be recorded by a stenographer which shall be transcribed if necessary.

(l) If, upon all the evidence at the hearing, the Commission finds that the respondent has been engaged in or is engaged in any unlawful practice, the Commission shall state its findings of fact and shall issue and cause to be served on the respondent an order requiring the respondent to cease and desist from such unlawful practice or practices and to take such affirmative action, including, but not limited to hiring, reinstatement or upgrading of employees, with or without back pay, restoration to membership in any respondent labor organization, or the extension of full, equal and unsegregated accommodation, advantages, facilities and privileges to all persons, and/or such other equitable and civil remedies including but not limited to compensatory damages, attorney's fees, out-of-pocket expenses, costs, and the assessment of a civil penalty as available under the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, Act of Oct. 27, 1955, (P.L. 744, No. 222), as amended, as, in the judgment of the Commission, will effectuate the purpose of this article, and including a requirement for report of the manner of compliance.

(m) If, upon all the evidence, the Commission finds that the respondent has not engaged in any unlawful practice, the Commission shall state its findings of fact and shall dismiss the complaint. Notice of such action shall be given to the complainant and respondent.

(n) Any complaint filed pursuant to this section must be so filed within 180 days after the alleged act of discrimination, unless otherwise required by the Fair Housing Act. Any complaint may be withdrawn at any time by the party filing the complaint.

(o) In all situations which may require prompt judicial relief, including those situations when it appears that a housing unit or units involved in a complaint may be sold, rented or otherwise disposed of before a determination of the case has been made, and the Commission shows probable cause for the complaint, the Court of Common Pleas of York County may issue an injunction restraining the complained of activity, including injunction of the sale, rental or other disposition of the unit or units except in compliance with the order of court. The court may attach to any such injunction granted such other conditions as it deems proper. Such injunction, if issued, shall be of no more than thirty (30) days duration. If an extension of time is required, this extension may be granted at the discretion of the court but a reasonable bond may be required by the court before granting such extension.

(p) In cases involving a claim of discrimination, if a complainant invokes the procedures set forth in this article, that individual's right of action in the courts of the Commonwealth shall not be foreclosed. If the court finds that the respondent has engaged in or is engaging in an unlawful discriminatory practice charged in the complaint, the court shall enjoin the respondent from engaging in such unlawful discriminatory practice and order affirmative action which may include, but is not limited to, reinstatement or hiring of employees, granting of back pay, compensatory or punitive damages, attorney's fees, or any other legal or equitable relief as the court deems appropriate.
(Ord. 32-2022. Passed 5-18-22.)

185.12 ENFORCEMENT AND JUDICIAL REVIEW.

The complainant, the City or the Commission may secure enforcement of the order of the Commission or other appropriate relief by the Court of Common Pleas of York County. When the Commission has heard and decided any complaint before it, enforcement of its order shall be initiated by the filing of a petition in such court, together with a transcript of the record of the hearing before the Commission, and issuance and service of a copy of such petition as in proceedings in equity. When enforcement of a Commission order is sought, the court may make and enter, upon the pleadings, testimony and proceedings set forth in such transcript, an order or decree enforcing, modifying and enforcing as so modified, or setting aside, in whole or in part, the order of the Commission, and the jurisdiction of the court shall not be limited by acts pertaining to equity jurisdiction of the courts. Any failure to obey an order of the court may be punished by such court as a contempt thereof. A final order entered by the Commission is an appealable order.
(Ord. 32-2022. Passed 5-18-22.)

185.13 CONFLICT.

When a provision of this article is found to be in conflict with a provision of any other City ordinance, or any regulation issued under the authority of such ordinance, the provisions which establish the higher standard for the protection of health, safety and welfare shall prevail.
(Ord. 32-2022. Passed 5-18-22.)

185.14 AUTHORIZATION TO RECEIVE DONATIONS.

The authorization and appropriation of public funds to the Human Relations Commission shall not preclude the Commission from accepting donations, to be used in administering this article, from any other sources, public or private.
(Ord. 32-2022. Passed 5-18-22.)

185.15 ADDITIONAL COVERAGE.
