Once the application is filled out, wait for the approval of the health inspector. After the health inspector approves the application, you will then make your payment. The fee is $35.00 for 1-3 consecutive days. You must apply for a temporary permit each time you have an event. Applicants may not exceed 14 temporary permits per calendar year. To qualify for a temporary food service permit, a SERVSAFE CERTIFICATE IS REQUIRED. The certificate holder must be present at the event. The ServSafe certificate holder is the responsible person in charge. You must have a ServSafe certificate to sale or give away food to the public. You must apply for and pay for a temporary food service permit a week prior to the event or your permit may be denied. Failure to apply for a temporary food service permit and a vendor is operating at an event, the vendor will be asked to leave the event escorted by York city police and it could result in a citation from the city of York.

All food must be prepared in a licensed kitchen or on site.
